Yoga offered by a supportive, loving and professional staff gives your child the opportunity to soar to his highest potential. Discover how Yoga can improve your child's ability to focus and concentrate, and support the development of fine and gross motor skills. Learn how Yoga contributes to an increase in successful communication and the desire to build responsive and interactive relationships. (Private classes available upon request. Please inquire.)

GENTLE YOGA

Monday	11:00 - 12:00 pm	April 4 - June 27 (no class May 30)	$120
---------------	-------------------------	--	--------------

This class offers Extra Gentle Yoga for those who enjoy moving slowly and gently, those who have not exercised in a while and those in recovery or receiving physical therapy. Extra Gentle Yoga will help you to develop your confidence in Yoga and improve your energy level, while gently stretching and nurturing your body.

The Center for Special Needs, Inc. is the non-profit outreach of The School of Royal Yoga, Inc. It was formed to address the community's alternative needs through specific Yoga curriculums. We serve people of all ages and levels of physical and economic ability to enhance, sustain, and improve the quality of life.
